

Denis Rivin

Denis Rivin is a futurist, art historian and entrepreneur. He's a tech scout, critical optimist and communicator of human progress. Associate partner in DareDisrupt, and author of the world's first children's book on the subject of technological unemployment. Board member at Learning Mission, a movement seeking to transform the Danish education system, and founder of progressive media outlet #ActualNews.

Denis does keynotes on critical optimism, mass collaboration and the exponential mindset.