

Tanya Knowles

Tanya Knowles is the Country Manager of Binance South Africa, world's largest cryptocurrency exchange by trading volume. Her previous roles have included working as the Business Manager of Adhara, a global provider of liquidity management and international payment solutions for decentralised financial networks and the Managing Executive of Fractal Solutions at Strate (Pty) Ltd, where she was tasked with leading a team to research, develop and implement disruptive technologies focusing on blockchain / distributed ledgers and cryptoassets.

Tanya is currently the Chairperson of the South African Financial Blockchain Consortium which represents over 60 of the country's largest financial institutions. She is an Ambassador for the Global Blockchain Business Council and a member of the South African National Blockchain Alliance. Tanya has been internationally recognised as one of the world's leading women in blockchain technology. Having presented across four continents, Tanya is a well-renowned speaker and thought leader in her area of expertise.

Tanya has a certification in blockchain technology from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) and holds a BA, PDM, and MBA all from the University of the Witwatersrand. In her private capacity, she is involved in a number of women's leadership and mentoring initiatives aimed at professional business women.

Tanya is a well-renowned speaker and thought leader in her area of expertise, who has presented across four continents. In her private capacity, she is involved in a number of women's leadership and mentoring initiatives that are aimed at professional business women.